

Three Links Apartments

Three Links Apartments is an attractive, affordable housing option for seniors, the handicapped and the disabled who seek a balance between privacy and companionship.

The comfortable one-bedroom apartments provide more than 530 square feet of convenient, independent living space.

The 85-unit complex offers residents numerous opportunities to meet new friends and to socialize. Three Links provides its own transportation for local outings and offers a unique in-house banking feature through a local bank.

Seniors find Northfield an attractive retirement community. This stimulating college town, just 35 miles south of the Twin Cities, offers seniors many unique cultural, athletic and recreational opportunities. It has a progressive medical community with an excellent relationship with the other programs and services provided on the Three Links campus.

Activities
